MARK S. BAXA

COUNCIL OF SUPPLY CHAIN MANAGEMENT
PROFESSIONALS (CSCMP)

PRESIDENT & CEO

BACKGROUND

Mark's experience in Supply Chain leadership spans 40 years. As CSCMP's President & CEO, he brings broad and deep leadership experience to lead the world's premier supply chain education association. Creating meaningful people leadership and development opportunities for the world's supply chain professionals is job #1 with Mark. The supply Chain is the backbone of progress. Society counts on the supply chain to "deliver the goods while doing the right things right"

Mark's vast leadership experience spans sales, customer service, logistics, distribution, global trade & compliance, procurement, sustainability, supplier diversity, and supply chain strategy. His CSCMP experience spans 25 years, including Roundtable President, the Global Board of Directors & Chairman of the Board. He instituted CSCMP's Supply Chain Sustainability practice, supercharged the CSCMP Talent Center, created the Ukraine Logistics Operations Relief Fund, and the Executive Inner Circle. Mark also serves as Chairman St Louis University Center of Supply Chain Excellence and Northwestern University NUTC Business Advisory Council board member. Mark served as a global board member for WEConnect International, consistent with his belief in the value diversity brings to the supply chain. He facilitates supply chain policy development at the EU & US Federal levels, teaches executive courses at the university level, is broadly published in numerous supply chain & business media, and speaks at conferences worldwide. In 2018, Mark was inducted into the prestigious DC Velocity Rainmakers.
